STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

3 Parke St., now Aberdeen Barber Shop "Frances": Two story frame building, five bays wide by two bays deep, gable and roof transversely oriented, regular fenestration, 2/2 sash windows, odolly placed interior chimney, phony colonial doorway (original embalming room for funeral home.

Henry Greenland Tarring joined John C. Fletcher in the funeral business (est. 1854) which later became known as Fletcher and Tarring and next Henry Tarring and later Henry Tarring/Sons.

The exact date of the funeral building construction is not to be found but records of funerals and deaths and services exist prior to 1900. The building in which the embalming was carried out exists today at 3 Parke St. on the original plot.

(reference story on the excessive numbers of deaths that occurred during the influenza epidemic of 1918-19, "The Aegis", Oct. 1918; Rapid Fire, enlisted men's newspaper APG 10/13/18.)
